INTRODUCTION

At Tobin Brothers, we recognise that a funeral is an important way for families and communities to celebrate the life, culture and interests of those we have loved. Assisting your family with arranging a funeral, requires the input of a team of caring, creative and professional staff and often involves many days of preparation and planning, as well as several hours of involvement from a number of staff on the day of the funeral itself. We are committed to guiding you through this difficult time and trust our service and care meets your expectations of us.

This booklet is provided for your information in accordance with the Funerals Act 2006. In order to provide you with the best advice possible and ensure that a funeral meets your individual family requirements, we strongly recommend that you discuss your funeral needs with one of our professionally trained staff. This can be done by meeting with one of our caring Professional Funeral Planners, in one of our conveniently located Chapels or at your home at no obligation or cost, or via telephone to our Funeral Advice Line: (03) 9373 7000.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is involved in arranging a funeral?

An important and traditional part of a Funeral Director's role is to assist with the practical aspects of a funeral, such as care of the deceased, and coordinating when and where the funeral will be held. Families are increasingly seeking our guidance and advice on the celebratory aspects of a funeral, such as the style and content of the service, the choice of music, and other touches that reflect the life of the deceased. At Tobin Brothers, we consider our staff to be Funeral Planners, in much the same way that a Wedding Planner coordinates and oversees all aspects of a wedding.

Information you may find helpful to assemble prior to an Arrangement Conference is:

- Centrelink or Veterans Affairs reference numbers.
- Date of Birth and Birthplace of the deceased.
- Marriage details – where, when, partner's name.
- Children(s) names and ages.
- Parents full names, occupations and Mother's maiden name.

Further information may be found at: www.tobinbrothers.com.au

What is the cost of a funeral?

Because there are so many styles of funerals, there isn't one answer to that question. In general terms, a funeral that is more elaborate will cost more than one that is simple in its structure. When a Funeral Planner meets with a client family they discuss the different options that are available, and it is up to the client family to select the most appropriate options to meet their needs. It is normal for the Cemetery or Crematorium costs, and the various disbursements (such as doctors fees, registration costs, press notices, flowers etc.) to be included in the one account, along with the funeral company fees.

Where are Tobin Brothers Chapels located?

For all Chapel locations and Melway references see page 17 of this brochure. The services of Frances Tobin Funerals by Women are available throughout the network of Tobin Brothers branches and chapels.

What are the terms of payment & options?

As the disbursements are paid by Tobin Brothers at the time of the funeral, payment of disbursements prior to the date of the funeral is appreciated. The final account is posted within a few days of the funeral. Payment is due within 10 days from the receipt of the account and can be made by cash, cheque, credit card, BPay or by visiting: www.tobinbrothers.com.au. We appreciate that for some families payment of the final account may present some difficulties and therefore we may agree on a payment plan in some instances.

As it is impossible for Tobin Brothers to anticipate or estimate the individual requests and requirements of all families that we serve, from time to time, it may be appropriate for fees not specifically listed in this brochure to be charged.

Examples of this may be an additional Professional Service Fee for funerals with a high degree of organisational complexity and Tobin Brothers' involvement, or for special merchandise requirements.

Such fees will be fully discussed prior to the funeral, once the nature and extent of these additional fees are known.
